AMEER GHUSAIN,
Plaintiff,
v.
PETER WEBB, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 24-cv-01863-JSC

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 95

Pending before the Court is US Rail Systems, Inc.'s ("USRS's") motion for a temporary restraining order and order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue. (Dkt. No. 95.) For the reasons stated in the Court's November 5, 2025 hearing, the Court GRANTS USRS's motion for a temporary restraining order. USRS has shown (1) it is likely to succeed on the merits of its intentional interference with contractual relations claim, (2) it is likely to suffer irreparable harm absent preliminary relief, (3) the balance of equities tips in its favor, and (4) an injunction is in the public interest. See Winter v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 20 (2008).

Pending a hearing on USRS's application for a preliminary injunction, Ameer Alghusain is ORDERED not to contact USRS's employees, contractors and clients asserting USRS stole or is improperly using his or his company's intellectual property including the US Rail or US Rail Systems. This order shall remain in effect until the hearing on USRS's motion for preliminary injunction.

The parties shall meet and confer as to whether USRS is proceeding with its motion to amend to file counterclaims in this action, or will file a separate action which can then be related to this action. The parties shall also submit a joint stipulation with a briefing and hearing schedule

1 for USRS's motion for a preliminary injunction. If USRS elects to file a new action, then the
2 motion for preliminary injunction shall be heard in that action. The parties shall file the requested
3 stipulation by November 10, 2025.

4 This Order disposes of Docket No. 95.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
